2013 Canadian Neuroscience Satellite Meeting

Speaker Biography: Judy Mandelman, partner, Promeus Inc.

Judy Mandelman (Partner) has been with Promeus Inc. since its inception in January 2005. With a decade of experience carrying out various research and recruitment projects, Judy has a successful track record of conducting senior-level executive searches for a range of clients in healthcare and the broader public sector.

Judy has led and implemented the effective research and recruitment strategies for numerous clients and organizations in Canada, and has enjoyed increasingly higher levels of responsibility related to challenging recruitment efforts in highly specialized senior leadership positions.

With her focus on innovative research strategies, Judy is continually evolving the Promeus network and commitment to identifying a broad range of exemplary leaders for our unique health and public health executive search projects.

Judy began her professional experience as a Recruitment Coordinator with Medhunters.com, coordinating the recruitment activity of healthcare professionals worldwide. Following that, she joined the research team at PricewaterhouseCoopers Executive Search in June 2003. Since then, she has been instrumental in building client and candidate relationships, stewarding complex and unique executive search projects and coordinating research and communications for the teams at for PricewaterhouseCoopers, and, currently, for Promeus Inc.

Judy has a Master of Industrial Relations and Human Resources from the University of Toronto.
